

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
April 26, 2007

SENSES RAISES A GLASS (AND FORK) TO CELEBRATE THE JOY OF ENTERTAINING
Restaurant, bakery and bar trio introduces sumptuous culinary events for 2007

TORONTO, ON – Senses Bakery, Restaurant and Bar invites Torontonians and all foodies to join in a celebration of food and wine with the introduction of a brand new culinary events line-up for 2007. Whether it's special occasion brunches, tips on how to throw the perfect party or a trip around the world's best cuisine, Senses has it all.

With the culinary extravaganza already begun, the remainder of the year is chock full of events guaranteed to please even the most discerning palates:

June – For the entire month of June, Senses Restaurant takes its guests on a trip to the outback with a special menu featuring Australian cuisine and fine Aussie wine. In addition, Senses Bakery hosts a fabulous three-course Father's Day Brunch on Sunday, June 17th.

July/August – Vive la France! In July, Senses Restaurant features a delectable tasting menu focused on French cuisines paired with French wines. Throughout the entire summer, Senses Bakery offers a collection of seasonal pastries and sweets, while Senses Bar presents a line of fruity cocktails sure to quench your thirst.

September – On Thursday, September 20th, Senses Bakery launches its first ever fall pie collection.

October – Thanksgiving Day Brunch is served in Senses Bakery on Monday, October 8th. Meanwhile, across the lobby of the SoHo Met Hotel, Chef Patrick Lin introduces a tasting menu that reflects that best of Chinese, Japanese, French and American culinary traditions. And if that were not enough, on Saturday, October 27th, 14 lucky guests will have the opportunity to dine at the Senses Chef's Table as Chef Lin presents a special 'East Meets West' tasting menu. Space is limited and it is recommended that reservations be made early.

November – On Tuesday, November 20th, Chef Bruno Feldeisen hosts a sweet entertaining event. Want tips on how to throw the perfect party? This event is not to be missed.

December – Stay tuned for more information on Christmas Day brunch and the New Year's Eve extravaganza dinner.

The cost per event varies depending on the scope of the event. Reservations and additional information can be obtained at Senses Bakery & Restaurant, 328 Wellington Street West (corner of Blue Jays Way and Wellington) or by calling 416.935.0400.

Senses Bakery, Restaurant and Bar (www.senses.ca) is a unique culinary concept that marries a fine dining room with distinctive offerings to inspire the five senses alongside a bakery of gourmet creations and products. Since opening the first store in Toronto in 1998, Senses has expanded with locations in the SoHo Metropolitan Hotel and at Queen and Yonge streets in downtown Toronto. Other award-winning restaurants affiliated with Senses are Hemispheres Restaurant + Bistro (Toronto), Lai Wah Heen (Toronto), Diva at the Met (Vancouver) and most recently, Lai Toh Heen (Toronto).

- 30 -

Media contacts:

Karen Krugel
PraxisPR

Trina Hendry
Senses Bakery & Restaurant

905.949.8255 ext. 233
karen@praxispr.ca

416.597.6305
thendry@metropolitan.com